ReServe and Alpha Business Solutions Announce Partnership to Provide High-Touch Payroll Services to ReServists, Expert Workers Age 50+

Red Bank, New Jersey, Alpha Business Solutions, a certified minority business enterprise founded by Gene Waddy in 2017, has been named as ReServe’s vendor of choice to provide payroll, employer of record services and associate care to more than 400 ReServists. ReServists are a growing talent pool of 50+ professionals who brings their skills and experience to work on part-time service projects to improve their communities.

The direct connection of the two companies demonstrates diversity and inclusion in action. “We are truly honored to partner with ReServe to provide a customer service focused solution to this diverse group of workers,” shared Gene Waddy, CEO of Alpha Business Solutions. “We look forward to establishing a long-term relationship with ReServe and their team of ReServists.” Alpha Business Solutions will onboard, pay, manage and support more than 420 ReServists in 10 states nationwide to their payroll services. “Our expert team will provide a streamlined onboarding process and continued customer care for ReServe’s 50+ age group of workers. We want to facilitate ReServists to easily take on new part-time projects to make a difference and have an impact in their communities.”

ReServists are comprised of a pool of professionals that have experience in social work, marketing, human resources, law, healthcare and finance. ReServe leverages these skilled professionals age 50+ to work within their communities through mentoring, filling nonprofit talent gaps, working with families impacted by dementia, linking people in poverty to essential services and more.
